Dear Parent / Carer

I write with a number of brief updates.

1) Tutoring

You will have received a letter about the re-launch of the Maths, English and Science afterschool National Tutoring Programme and we would like to extend the invitation for your child to take part for the rest of this academic year. If you would like to take advantage of this fantastic opportunity please go to this link on MS Forms and complete the questions by Friday 16th February. If your child currently attends the sessions, please re-register your interest

2) Year 9 Options

We are excited to announce our Year 9 Futures Evening scheduled for Wednesday, 28th February. The evening provides an invaluable opportunity for both pupils and parents to explore the diverse range of subjects and courses available for study. It is an excellent occasion to gain a comprehensive understanding of the various options, ensuring that pupils make informed decisions about their academic future. Further information will be shared via Arbor in the coming weeks with regards to booking appointments and the options process. We encourage all Year 9 pupils and their families to attend this event to make the most of the guidance and information provided. We look forward to seeing you there!

3) Relationships and Sex Education Policy

I attach a draft of our updated Relationship and Sex Education Policy. This document explains what we teach and why. I think this level of transparency is helpful for parents. If you have any comments or feedback on this draft policy please email me (FAO of Mr Jones via enquiry@nsg.kevibham.org), and all comments will be considered and shared with governors before adopting the policy.

Yours faithfully

Mr Neil Jones
