

SCHOOL OFFER – SEND PROVISION AT KEVI VI Northfield School for Girls 2026/2027

Mrs Campbell – SENDCO - Full time

Appointed in June 2022 Mrs Campbell is a qualified SENDCO who has completed the NASENCO qualification as well as an MA Education in Special Educational Needs and Inclusion. She has extensive experience of overseeing SEND provision in both mainstream and specialist settings.

Miss Brown – Assistant SENDCO (Tuesday, Thursday and Friday)

Appointed in April 2022. Miss Brown is an experienced SEND administrator with extensive experience supporting complex students in lessons and interventions. She has experience of supporting children in care and overseeing and creating evidence to support Access Arrangements.

Students at Northfield School for Girls are supported by experienced teaching assistants who are level 3 qualified or above. They all have a wealth of experience in supporting children with a variety of special educational needs and disabilities as well as medical needs.

Mrs Collins – Level 3 Teaching Assistant

Mrs Collins a key adult to a number of students with an EHCP and also delivers reading interventions during morning registration. Mrs Collins works closely with students needing support on a 1:1 basis as well as in class support.

Miss Harvey – Level 3 Teaching Assistant

Miss Harvey is also a key adult to a number of students on the SEND register. Miss Harvey also delivers reading interventions during morning registration. Miss Harvey also has experience of working with students with medical needs as well as students with a physical disability.

Ms Neath – Level 3 Teaching Assistant – Homework Club

Ms Neath provides in class support across a range of subjects. She works hard to support students who might need help understanding curriculum content and teacher instructions and also runs the school's homework club twice a week. Ms Neath also has experience of working with students with a variety of different medical needs.

Miss O'Grady – Level 3 Teaching Assistant

Mrs O'Grady has extensive experience of supporting students with a physical disability and has received training in order to support with the delivery of the student's physiotherapy programmes. Miss O'Grady also works closely with students needing support on a 1:1 basis as well as in class support.

Mrs Clarke – Level 3 Teaching Assistant – Homework Club

Mrs Clarke a key adult to a number of students with an EHCP and also delivers reading interventions during morning registration. She also runs the school's homework club three times a week. Mrs Clarke works closely with students needing support on a 1:1 basis as well as in class support. She has years of experience supporting students with special educational needs.

Miss Groves – Level 5 Higher Level Teaching Assistant

Miss Groves is a Level 5 HLTA with extensive experience working in primary schools, specialising in phonics delivery and support. She is a key adult for a number of students with EHCPs across both key stages. Miss Groves has extensive experience of working with students with a variety of special educational needs.

Miss Barclay – Level 3 Teaching assistant

Miss Barclay is also a qualified teacher and provides in class support across a range of subjects. She works hard to support students who might need help understanding curriculum content and teacher instructions. Miss Barclay also delivers 1:1 interventions with pupils on the Lexia programme.

Mrs McConnell – Level 3 Teaching Assistant

Mrs McConnell has extensive experience working in primary schools, specialising in phonics and handwriting delivery and support. She provides in class support across a range of subjects and also has experience of working with students with a physical disability.

Miss Evans – Level 3 Teaching Assistant (apprenticeship)

Miss Evans has extensive experience of working with individuals with a variety of medical diagnoses. She provides in class support across a variety of subjects as well as working with pupils with medical needs.

Miss Barker – Level 3 Teaching Assistant (apprenticeship)

Miss Barker provides in class support across the curriculum and supports with reading interventions during morning registration.